

Dear Texas Association of Student Councils,

With great anticipation, we, Ray Braswell High School, are writing this letter to formally declare our intent to run for the state office of Parliamentarian.

In just a few years, our Student Council has grown rapidly. We've worked tirelessly to contribute meaningful impacts to District Three, including identifying student involvement, achieving sweepstakes for three consecutive years, being honored as a "National Council of Excellence" (2022–2023), and receiving NatStuCo Gold (2023 & 2024, with expectations for 2026). After becoming an established member of our community and District Three, we aim to engage at a statewide level. We believe we are more than ready to implement our vision of excellence to support every Student Council in Texas.

Developing a strong, confident identity in students is essential to cultivating the next generation of student leaders. Our platform, "Making Waves: Amplifying Student Voices Across Texas," focuses on identifying, recruiting, and cultivating new student voices to assist them in contributing to their communities. We aim to implement multiple simple, adaptable systems that include connecting larger and smaller schools to help both parties develop, identifying new student leaders and teaching them how to lead easy short-term projects with no long-term commitment, hosting campus-wide Lunch Table Talk sessions that allow students to both grow their leadership and connect with their Student Council, and first step leadership workshops to give new leaders a hands-on leadership experience.

Abigail Towers, Student Representative, and Mr. Dawson, Student Council Advisor, promise, if elected, to uphold the standards of TASC and fulfill the responsibilities of the Parliamentarian position with dedication. Ray Braswell High School is more than eager to create a genuine, inspiring change in how others view leadership, and perhaps foster the next great Student Council leaders through implementing a strong, healthy foundation of leadership—starting early.

Best regards,

Student Representative
Abigail Towers

Student Advisor
J. Dawson
