Texas Association of Student Councils:

It is with great enthusiasm that I submit my letter of intent to run for Elected Advisor to the TASC Board of Directors. I consider myself fortunate to have been a part of TASC and its culture of building strong leaders since 2012. I remember my first Annual Conference in Arlington. I was in awe as over 5000 students were simultaneously doing the Wiggalo. That is when I knew how special this organization was. That summer was my first Summer Leadership Workshop, and I served as a Small Group Facilitator. I had no idea what I was getting into, but it was a great experience. 12 years later, I still enjoy every minute that I spend at these types of events. While we attend to take our students, as an advisor, I always walk away with a renewed sense of purpose, excited to implement what we have learned.

I have attended the TASC Steering Retreat over the last two years, and I saw a lot of the behind-the-scenes planning that takes place to help direct what the TASC year will look like. I am ready to share my voice and draw upon my experiences as an advisor from far West Texas. I have taught at a school with under 400 students and currently teach at one with almost 3000. Each of the schools across Texas has its own set of challenges and circumstances. I hope to contribute to the diverse set of voices that the TASC Board represents.

The Pebble Hills High School Student Council believes in leading by example. Although our campus is only 8 years old, we have served on the District 9 Board three times. Our council has earned OSC and Sweepstakes each of the last 5 years. Last year our council took the step to run for TASC Parliamentarian. Although we did not win, our council was not sad. They still knew the bond they formed from working together was just as important.

TASC provides many opportunities for students and advisors alike. I have the full support of my council and my administration. I would be humbled and honored if given the opportunity to serve on the TASC Board of Directors.

Sincerely,

James Alan Brown
