Dear TASC Board of Directors,

We, the Student Council of Klein Oak High School, are officially submitting this letter of intent to seek the position of the TASC State Parliamentarian school. Having served as the District 7 Parliamentarian for 11 years, our experience has prepared us for taking on this office. Our advisor, Susan Parent, has led our council for 12 years with diligence and enthusiasm. Our council has served many charitable organizations across the state. We have also won sweepstakes every year, Top 10 Video and six consecutive National Council of Excellence awards.

In today's age of technology, social media platforms have created an environment where cyberbullying thrives. Large companies, such as Snapchat, Instagram, and Twitter, have opened a gateway to allow negativity to influence the lives of millions. With the increasing significance of smart phones in the daily lives of everyone, everything you share follows you wherever you go. We believe that this is the primary source of elevated rates of anxiety, depression, loss of self-confidence, and suicide. Partnering with #iCanHelp, we propose that councils across Texas should take the initiative to foster a culture of kindness online. We want to equip high school students with the knowledge and tools to positively utilize their influence on social media. This can be accomplished by sharing encouraging things that purposefully build up others. Furthermore, we can prompt upperclassmen to teach other students to follow suit in promotion of this culture of kindness. With our platform, we as student councils across the state can change the online environment for the better.

If elected, we promise to carry out the duties of your State Parliamentarian with utmost dignity. We recognize the challenges and responsibility that this position entails. With our pre-existing knowledge and expertise, Klein Oak High School Student Council believes that we are best fit for the position of TASC State Parliamentarian.

Sincerely,
