To Whom It May Concern:

This is written to sing the praises of a particular Student Council project that happens every fall. This year the name of the week was Grins with Friends and that is exactly what it did. Student Council members work hard to make contact with and be intentional in making connections on our campus. One part of the project has students partnered with another student that they do not know- in that, their job is to try and find their new buddy and take a photo at one of the photo ops and post them to social media. There are daily "tasks" that once again are intentional in promoting inclusivity and kindness. This is not only for the students – faculty also are included and I know that the adults on our campus also look forward to making connections with other staff and put names to faces. This is one of my highlights of the fall and I look forward to the positive lift that it gives to our entire campus.

Sincerely,

Jamie Quarles
