3. *The conference coordinator school should bring 5 paid voting delegates and an unlimited number of additional students needed to fulfill duties related to the conference.
4. Schools seeking state office must follow the guidelines outlined in the formal Campaign Rules and Regulations.
5. *Based on conference facilities, TASC will allow a limited number of guests to register without payment. Those may include a school administrator, one guest per candidate school, and up to four guests per state officer school (student officer representative family members).
6. The registration fee is set by the Board of Directors and includes a conference T-shirt for pre-registered delegates.
7. All attendees, other than the aforementioned guests and additional conference coordinator school students, for any part of the conference must be registered either as guests or paid attendees.
8. The TASC Board of Directors has set a no refund policy once the deadline for cancellation has passed. If registration is not cancelled in writing by the stated deadline, schools will be charged the full amount for the registered delegates.

Middle Level Attendance at the Annual Conference:

9. The TASC Annual Conference is open to any junior high/middle level TASC member school. All delegations must be accompanied by an advisor or advisor designee.
 - o TASC recommends an advisor-to-student ratio of at least 1:10 for every middle level member school

National Honor Society/National Junior Honor Society Attendance at the Annual Conference:

10. National Honor Societies and National Junior Honor Societies chapters may also bring delegates to the TASC Annual State Conference with the permission of the TASC Director.

Exhibitors at the Annual Conference

11. TASC will invite commercial firms to exhibit at the Annual Conference. Student travel firms may be approved as exhibitors if student travel is well supervised and their policies meet appropriate safety and security measures.
*This policy may be modified by the TASC Director should conference facilities create the need to limit attendance, or circumstances cause the need to increase numbers who can register per school.
