Dear Texas Association of Student Councils,

On behalf of Plainview High School and the Plainview High School Student Council, we are formally submitting our intent to run for the state office of Parliamentarian. With great respect for the mission and leadership of TASC, our council is eager to serve and contribute at the state level. We understand the commitment, responsibility, and integrity required of this position and are prepared to fulfill all duties expected of the office of Parliamentarian while upholding the standards and values of the association.

Across Texas, thousands of children and families are impacted each year by circumstances that require the involvement of Child Protective Services. Behind every case is not only a child in need of safety, but also families seeking stability and CPS caseworkers managing heavy caseloads, emotional stress, and limited resources. These caseworkers serve countless communities, often working long hours to protect vulnerable children while balancing overwhelming responsibilities.

Our campaign, "For a More Hopeful Tomorrow: Where every child is safe, every family supported, and every CPS worker a hero," focuses on recognizing and supporting the many individuals affected by this work. By coordinating school-led drives and promoting standardized support efforts among student councils, we aim to help provide essential resources that CPS workers need to serve large numbers of children and families more effectively. Making resources more accessible helps reduce strain on caseworkers and allows them to focus more time and energy on the children they serve.

In addition to material support, our council is dedicated to ensuring CPS workers feel appreciated and valued. Through appreciation initiatives such as assembling and delivering gift baskets, student councils can positively impact morale and remind caseworkers that students across Texas recognize the significance of their work. Even small acts of recognition can reach far beyond one individual, influencing entire offices and the families they support.

By highlighting the widespread impact of CPS work, Plainview High School Student Council hopes to encourage student councils statewide to take action in their communities. Together, we can support the many children, families, and caseworkers affected each day and help create safer, stronger communities throughout Texas.

Thank you
