Date:	October 10-11, 2014
Title:	Fright Night Camping Trip
Objective:	To provide an opportunity for bonding among Student Council members
Indicate Target Group:	Student Council officers and members
Resources Used:	Camping Supplies
Description:	Student Council advisors, officers, and members set out after school one Friday for an overnight camping trip. We traveled about two hours away to a lake and set up tents for the night. A campfire was built and food was cooked on the fire. Fun stories were told and a lot of fun was had by everyone. The camping trip was part of the new socials plan that our Student Council does every month.

Title:	Bring Your Own Banana
Objective:	To celebrate the end of STARs and TAKS with ice cream and a senior vs. Faculty basketball game.
Indicate Target Group:	KHS Student Body and Faculty
Resources Used:	Ice cream, toppings, paint, paint brushes, and butcher paper
Description:	School would be run on assembly schedule so that during 8 th period there would be time for a Senior vs. Faculty basketball game. Students would pay $2.00 to their 8 th period teachers in order to get the ticket that would get them out of class and to the basketball game. After the game was over and as everyone was going home Student Council members handed out free ice cream to anyone who wanted any at the front of the school. This project was a great way to not only raise money but to get all the students and faculty involved.
