| Title: | Veterans Day Door Decorations |
| Objective: | to show appreciation to those who served for our country. |
| Indicate Target Group: | Veterans |
| Resources Used: | Streamer, Markers, Paper, Cut outs, Tape, Glue, and Flags |
| Description: | We asked our advisor for a list of all the teachers who served for the U.S. We made posters and cut outs to show appreciation for these teachers. We went to their classrooms and decorated their door so that students would know that these teachers had done something good for our country. |

| Title: | Bleacher Buddies |
| Objective: | To include cougars with special needs in sporting events |
| Indicate Target Group: | Cougars with special needs |
| Resources Used: | Togas |
| Description: | As a part of meet in the middle program, all Student Council executive board members are paired with a cougar in the special education program. Senior Student Council members included their buddies in the first football game of the season. Buddies were provided a toga to wear, which was the senior dress up theme for the game, and were included in the spirit exchange on the field. Buddies then sat in the student section for the football game to cheer on the team. Many people were impacted by the event and plans exist to continue with other sports. |

| Title: | Veteran's Day Memorial in Praha, Texas |
| Objective: | To remember the brave people that served our country |
| Indicate Target Group: | The Students of St. Pius X |
| Resources Used: | [REDACTED] |
| Description: | Every year, a group of students always go to Praha, Texas and participate in the Veteran's memorial that includes a ceremony honoring the nine Veterans that died in action from that town, the dropping of the roses over the graves of the Veterans, and the presentation of colors by the Knights of Columbus. It is a place to go to and very touching because there is so much love and respect for those who have died fighting for their country. |
